

Right to information

Open data strategy

A four-year plan outlining how we will make our data freely available to the public.

How to access information

Access and update information, find out what information we release as part of Right to Information.

Disclosure log

Documents released under the Right to Information Act 2009 that do not contain personal information of the applicant.

Publication scheme

Our publication scheme lets you know what information we routinely make publicly available.

Last updated: 1 May 2024